

Cadet Girls Division 2011-12 Game Summaries

Week #10

Seton Hall 14 - UCLA 12

Seton Hall edged out UCLA by one bucket. It was a close game for all 8 segments. The teams were very evenly matched. Jessica Hand, Amy Carey, Grace Dionne and Andrea Liscioot all contributed for points. Julia Ashley, Hannah MacAllister and Shannon Curran scored for UCLA with text book lay ups and few outside shots that were perfectly placed. Kacey Corbett, Lauren Pratt, Julia Perreira, Jennifer Belanger, Lucy Ma and Erin Reilly kept the Seton Hall from scoring many points with outstanding defense. UCLA ends the season with a loss to Seton Hall but is ready for the Brotherhood.

Notre Dame 36 - North Carolina 14

Notre Dame was able to close out their regular season with another win against an aggressive North Carolina Tar Heel Team. Cassandra West was the team's high scorer with 18 points and awarded the "Game Ball" for her blocked shots and relentless rebounding. Other high scorer included Jaylyn Alto with 12 points, Mikayla Bennett 4 points and Amanda Clemente with an exciting basket to close out the period. The Irish has come a long way since the start of the season and looks forward to the Brotherhood Tournament beginning March 3rd. High scorer for North Carolina was Tiffany Cheek with 6 points and Meghan Shea and Emma Goldberg both contributed 4 points for a hard working North Carolina team.

UConn 27 - Maryland 16

UConn won their first game of the season with a strong performance against a much improved Maryland team. Anna Quirbach lead the way with 10 points. Also Lilia Dean, Abigail Angwin, and Laura Grasso all added four points each to earn the W. Maryland was off to a rough start in their final regular season game with an injury within the first 3 minutes. Erin Bean left early with a twisted right ankle. Emily Dunn quickly took her place in the game. The first point on the board was scored by Dunn with a well-placed foul shot. She also contributed 6 rebounds and 2 steals during the game. Rachel Landress, Gabrielle Cruz, and Samantha Gould each scored 4 points for the team. Landress also grabbed 2 rebounds, and Gould had an amazing 9 rebounds and 5 steals. Samantha Johnson and Alannah Servin each scored 2 points. Johnson had 1 steal and Servin had 5 rebounds and 1 steal. Kaitlyn Anderson and Allie McGuire both played an aggressive game. Anderson had 7 rebounds and 1 steal. These girls have come so far this season, it's a shame to see the season end. We are looking forward to seeing what they can do in the playoffs in 2 weeks. Here's hoping Bean's ankle is better and she is able to rejoin the team then.

Week #9

Seton Hall 24 - Maryland 12

A well-played game by both Seton Hall and Maryland to start off the Saturday morning games. Maryland had many opportunities to score, but the ball did not want to fall for them. Amy Carey had a buzzer beater lay-up to put Seton Hall up by 4 points with a score of 12-8. High scorer for Seton Hall was Grace Dionne with 8 points. Amy Carey, Hannah Polce, Andrea Lisciotto all had 4 points and Jessica Hand and Grace Rigney contributed a bucket to Seton Hall's victory. Maryland played another great game today despite the 24-12 loss against Seton Hall. The team and played an excellent defensive and offensive game. Top scorers for the team were Alannah Servin and Shailagh McCormack with 4 points, 4 rebounds, and 1 steal each. Rachel Landress and Gabrielle Cruz each scored 2 points for the team with 1 steal for Cruz and 2 rebounds and one steal for Landress. Samantha Gould grabbed 5 rebounds for the team, while Emily Dunn had 4 rebounds and 3 steals.

CYBL Chelmsford Youth Basketball League

Kaitlyn Anderson had 3 rebounds and 1 steal, while Erin Bean and Samantha Johnson played aggressively keeping Seton Hall on their toes. These girls have really come a long way this season. It should be a pleasure watching their final game of the season next week.

Notre Dame 13 - UCLA 10

The parents got their money's worth watching this nail biter between Notre Dame and UCLA. After 6 segments the game was tied 8-8. Both teams were very well matched, but in the end Notre Dame prevailed. High scorer for Notre Dame was Cassandra West with 7 points. Jaylyn Alto had 4 points and Justine Long had 2 points. UCLA played their best game this season. The team played a very aggressive game and kept a talented Notre Dame from scoring a lot of points. Scoring for UCLA were Shannon Curran 4 points, Julia Perreira 4 points and Erin Reilly had 2 points. Maggie McCartin, Hannah MacAllister, Kacey Corbett, Lucy Ma and Lauren Pratt played great defense and made it very hard from the Notre Dame team to score. The UCLA girls gave 100% every segment.

Week #8

UCLA 14 - North Carolina 12

UCLA and North Carolina started the day off with a dandy of a game that needed over-time to settle it. Both teams played excellent defense and points were hard to come by but eventually UCLA locked up the 14-12 OT win. It was a nail biting game this Saturday that was close during all 8 segments. Kacey Corbett, Julia Perreira and Shannon Curran scored 4 points each for UCLA. Kacey Corbett had 2 points. Hannah Macallister, Maggie McCartin, Lucy Ma, Lauren Pratt and Erin Reilly played great defense and stole the ball away numerous times. The girls put the pressure on North Carolina so it made it very difficult for them to score. The girls were rebounding well and making great passes throughout the game. North Carolina was led by Meghan Shea's four points and the deep jump shot of Andrea Loew. Sarina Schmitke did a good job controlling the game from her guard position and helped Emma Bouley, Anna Mullane and Emma Goldberg each score a basket. It was a very exciting game to play and the fans didn't mind getting up for an 8:00 am game since it was so much fun to watch.

Notre Dame 30 - Maryland 10

Notre Dame was able to come away with another great win against a very aggressive Maryland team. The Irish had excellent ball movement and strong defensive performance. Katie Mann received the "Game Ball" for her lock down defensive play and tying up loose balls. Mikayla Bennett was the high scorer with 10 points and some great rebounds. Other leading scores included, Jaylyn Alto with 6 points, Justine Long with 6 points, Cassandra West with 4 points and Sydney Alto with 4 points. Amanda Clemente made some excellent passes to Cassandra and Mikayla resulting in 4 assists. Scoring for a very improved Maryland team was high scorer Rachel Landress. While Shailagh McCormack contributed 4 points.

Week #7

Boston College 28 - UCLA 14

B.C. beat a strong UCLA team by a score of 28-14. B.C. had an even scoring effort that was led by Lauren Powell with 12 points followed by Shannon McLaughlin had 8 points, Kayla Stone had 4 points and Abigail Segal and Chenoone Forgan each contributed 2 points for the B.C. victory. UCLA played a good game and never gave up. Julia Ashley was high scorer for UCLA with 8 points, Shannon Curran had 4 points and Erin Reilly had 2 points. Kacey Corbett, Julia Perreira, Maggie McCartin, Lauren Pratt, Hannah Macallister, Lucy Ma and Jennifer Belanger all played great defense and helped keep UCLA in the game. UCLA stopped Boston College from scoring on a few segments which was fun to watch!

CYBL Chelmsford Youth Basketball League

Week #6

Villanova 24 - UCLA 12

Villanova came from behind to come out victorious. The score at the end of the first half was 10-8 in favor of UCLA. Villanova came out a little slow but kept battling back and slow down a good UCLA team. MacKensie Leahy had a phenomenal game both on offense with 14 points as well on defense with several steals. NicoleMcGinty also had an outstanding game for Villanova while Sarah Meinhardt played aggressive defense. UCLA had a full team even though it was snowing out! Kacey Corbett was high scorer for UCLA with 6 points. Julia Ashley, Julia Perreira, and Hannah MacAllister all had 2 points for UCLA. Great defense was played by Lauren Pratt, Lucy Ma, Erin Reilly, Maggie McCartin and Jennifer Belanger. Shannon Curran had some great blocks and helped set up some fast breaks. UCLA never gave up throughout the game. The ball did not want to drop in for the UCLA team today.

Boston College 26 - 8 UConn

B.C. took control of the game and never looked back. High scorer for B.C. was Shannon McLaughlin with 8 points followed by Lauren Powell and Kayla Stone each with 6 points. Chevonne Forgan contributed 4 points for B.C. Short staffed UConn put up a valiant effort but fell to a much stronger BC team in the end. Anna Quirbach led the game for UConn with 4 points and 4 steals, along with Courtney Morgan who added 4 more points and 3 rebounds. UConn showed improvement in defense this week with solid rebounding from Abigail Angwin (4 rebs.) and Hannah Elfikah (2 rebs.), and blocked shots from Laura Grasso (2 rebs.) and Camryn Mandella (2 rebs., 3 steals). Lilia Dean (2 rebs.) contributed two steals and Lily Patterson (1 reb.) provided support and pressure on the boards. In the end the shots just wouldn't fall for UConn and they ended on the short side of a 26-8 game.

Syracuse 23 - Notre Dame 20

Sparks were flying in an exciting and close game by 2 powerful teams. Syracuse had a slim lead at the end of the first half 10-8. Throughout the game both teams fought hard. Tatyana Reedy was high scorer for Syracuse with 13 points. Also contributing to the Syracuse victory was Kaitlin McGowan with 6 points and Julie Ruff and Abby Cassidy had 2 points each. Notre Dame had the opportunities to score, but the ball would not fall for them. Cassandra West and Jaylyn Alto both had 6 points to keep Syracuse within reach. Also contributing to the score board for Notre Dame was Sydney Alto and Justine Long.

Duke 16 - Seton Hall 12

Duke beat a very good Seton Hall team in a well played and exciting game. Seton Hall had a half time lead of 10-6, but strong defense by Duke kept them in the game. Duke tied the game 12-12 with 2 segments remaining. Duke took the lead 14-12 when Keely Ford (4 points) stole the ball and went to the basket to score. Duke scored again to win 16 to 12. High scorer for Duke was Maddie Severance with 8 points. Marie Sarault and Angelina Serra had 2 points for Duke. Amy Carey had a great game for Seton Hall and was high scorer with 10 points and Andea Lisciotta had 2 points. Seton Hall played good team ball and played well, but came up short in the end.

Maryland 22 - North Carolina 16 (2 OT)

Maryland and North Carolina had the gym rocking with a double over-time thriller. In a game with tremendous defense with many steals and blocked shots Maryland eventually pulled ahead to secure a 22-16 win. Samantha Gould led the Maryland attack with 10 points, Shailagh McCormack had 6 points followed by Samantha Johnson, Kaitlyn Anderson and Alannah Servin with 2 points each. North Carolina had a balanced attack with Emma Bouley and Anna Mullane leading the scoring with four points each. Meghan Shea started the scoring and then Andrea Loew's jump shot had North Carolina out to an early lead. Achal Gunda and Tiffany Cheok rounded out the scoring with two points each.

CYBL Chelmsford Youth Basketball League

Week #5

North Carolina 23 - Connecticut 16

North Carolina breaks into the win column with a hard earned victory over a tough UCONN team 23-16. North Carolina controlled the first half of the game by a score of 14-6 lead. Emma Bouley started the scoring for North Carolina with a beautiful basket to register the only two points in the well played first period. North Carolina then took control thanks to Gina Casellano's best all around game of the year, Maria Loew setting the stage with her tremendous defense and Sarina Schmitke controlling the board. North Carolina had an excellent passing day all around and ended up with two big scorers. Meghan Shea lead everyone with 12 points and Tiffany Cheok added 9 more points. UCONN continued to battle by back with a 6-0 run Camryh Mandella had great efforts on offense and defense and scoring 4 pts. Lilia Dean also played well for UCONN. with 2 pts. Also, scoring for UCONN were Courtney Morgan, Hannah Elfakih, Lily Patterson and Erin Young all with 2 pts.

Notre Dame 16 - Duke 6

Notre Dame was able to keep their winning streak alive with a 16 - 6 win against an aggressive Duke Blue Devil Team. Emma Bernier was awarded the "Game Ball" for her aggressive defense and first basket of the year. Leading scorer was Cassandra West with 6 points and 5 rebounds. Other leading scorers included Sydney Alto with 4 points, Katie Mann, Emma Bernier, and Jaylyn Alto with 2 points each. The Irish started out slow, but played solid and aggressive defense lead by Amanda Clemente and Cassandra. Justine Long was able to get the offense rolling with some great underneath passes creating excellent scoring opportunities. Duke was playing with a small squad and came up short against Notre Dame. Playing hard for Duke were guards Maddie Severance and Angelina Serra. Scoring for Duke with 2 points each were Keely Ford, Maddie Severance and Marie Sarault.

Seton Hall 30- Villanova 16

The game started off well for both teams, but by the end of the first half Seton Hall opened up a good lead with a score of 22-10 and never looked back. Amy Carey had a very impressive game and was the high scorer for Seton Hall with 14 pts. Lauren White had 6pts followed by Grace Rinney with 4pts followed by Grace Dolan, Hannah Polce and Andrea Lisciotta all with 2 pts. Villanova played relentless defense lead by Nicole McGinty, Katelyn Desilivio, and MacKenzie Leahy who was high scorer with 8 pts. Emma Stover, Katelyn Desilivio, Lorelei Plunkett and Nicole McGinty all scored 2 points.

Syracuse 34 - BC 29

What an exciting and close game played between Syracuse and BC. At the end of the first half B.C. was ahead by 4 points with a score of 16-12. Syracuse passed the ball very well and played great team ball. Tatyana Reedy was high scorer with 12 points. Tatyana was also excellent on the boards. Anne Nealy had an impressive 8 pts while Kaitlin McGowan did a great job driving the ball to the hoop for 6 points. Julie Ruff played hard on offense and defense. She scored 4 points for Syracuse. Maya Mohanty and Beth Nickerson each scored 2 points. B.C. never let up and kept returning hoops. Lauren Powell played a phenomenal game for B.C. She had 14 points and was tenacious on defense. Shannon McLaughlin did a great job on the boards pulling down several rebounds for B.C. Shannon contributed 6 pts for her team. Chevonne Forgan also had played well on defense and had 3 points. Erika Emero, Kayla Copploa, Kayla Stone all had 2 points for their team.

UCLA 24 - Maryland 10

UCLA played a great game today. Shannon Curran, was high scorer with 8 points followed by Julia Ashley and Julia Perreira with 6 points each. Hannah Macallister and Kacey Corbett each scored 2 point. UCLA played great team basketball while scoring on their well executed plays. Many players scored on fast breaks. Maggie McCartin, Lauren Pratt, Erin Reilly and Lucy Ma all played a powerful defense. It was a great win for UCLA.

CYBL Chelmsford Youth Basketball League

Week #4

No Game Summaries

Week #3

Notre Dame 18 - Boston College 13

Notre Dame was able to pull-off their third straight win against a very aggressive and well-coached Boston College Team (18-13). This was a "nail-biter" that started with Notre Dame down by 1 point heading into the final segment. The Irish withstood an aggressive press defense by the Eagles and was able to score 6 points in the final few minutes of the game to come-away with the win. Leading scorer and "Game Ball" went to Cassandra West with 10 points and 6 rebounds. Jaylyn Alto had 8 points and 5 rebounds. Justine Long had the play of the game with a sweet behind-the-back pass to Cassandra for a lay-up. Defensively, another strong performance from Amanda Clemente, Erin Sousa and Katelyn Mann playing lock-down defense and chasing down numerous loose balls.

Seton Hall 22 - North Carolina 14:

North Carolina started and ended the game with outstanding periods, now we need to solidify the rest of the game! Andrea Loew continued to play outstanding defense and Aachal Gunda had her best game of the season. Leading scorer for North Carolina was Anna Mullane with 6 points and Emma Bouley with 4 points. Also scoring were Emma Goldberg and Gina Castellano, each with 2 points.

Maryland 12 - Syracuse 30

Despite a loss to Syracuse on Saturday, Maryland's players showed up to play an aggressive game. Samantha Gould scored 6 of the team's 12 points along with 6 rebounds, 1 block and 1 steal. Rachel Landress scored 4 points with 4 rebounds and 3 steals. Shailagh McCormack scored 2 points with 5 rebounds and 1 steal. Kaitlyn Anderson, Alannah Servin, and Emily Dunn played a great defensive game with 3 rebounds and 1 steal for Anderson, 1 rebound and 3 steals for Servin, and 2 rebounds and 1 steal for Dunn. The rest of the team played a great game. Samantha Johnson and Allie McGuire each contributed 1 steal while Erin Bean and Gabrielle Cruz each got one rebound. Cruz is also credited with 1 steal. With each passing game, the Maryland players have shown remarkable improvement and teamwork. We look forward to their next game.

Week #2

Notre Dame 18 - Villanova 11

Notre Dame was able to capture their second straight win 18 - 11 against a very strong Villanova team. Leading scorer and "Game Ball" went to Mikayla Bennett with 6 points. Other leading scores included Jaylyn Alto with 6 points, Cassandra West 4 points and Sydney Alto 2 points. The offense moved the ball very well led by Justine Long often hitting the open girl and penetrating the basket. Defensively, Amanda Clemente and Erin Sousa stood-out by creating numerous turnovers and chasing-down loose balls.

North Carolina 34 - Syracuse 17

North Carolina and Syracuse played an exciting and closely matched first half before Syracuse pulled away for their big win. North Carolina played a swarming defense led by Gina Castellano and got great rebounding by Emma Goldberg. Pacing the Tar Heel's offence was Anna Mullane's 8 points and Meghan Shea's 5 points while Marie Loew and Tiffany Cheek each chipped in 2 points a piece.

CYBL Chelmsford Youth Basketball League

BC 22 - Maryland 14

Despite a 22 - 14 loss to BC in the second game of the season, Maryland's players played great offensively and defensively. Samantha Gould and Shailagh McCormack each scored 4 points with 1 steal each and 6 rebounds for Gould. The remaining 6 points were scored by Rachel Landress, Alannah Servin, and Emily Dunn. Landress was responsible for 8 steals and Servin for 3 steals and 1 rebound. Erin Bean returned the ball to Maryland with 1 rebound and Kaitlyn Anderson with 2 steals. Samantha Johnson and Allie McGuire contributed aggressively to the game as well. Everyone played a great game and are preparing for next week.

Week #1

Connecticut 19 - Maryland 14

Maryland was off to a great start this season. Despite the final score of 19-14 in favor of Connecticut, Maryland's players played a great offensive and defensive game. Top scorer of the week was Samantha Gould with 6 points scored, 3 rebounds, and 2 steals. Rachel Landress made 3 steals, and Alannah Servin grabbed 3 rebounds; both playing an aggressive game. Shailagh McCormack took 4 rebounds helping Maryland gain control of the ball. Other players who contributed both offensively and defensively are Samantha Johnson and Gabrielle Cruz with 1 rebound each, Emily Dunn with 2 steals, Allie McGuire and Erin Bean with one steal each and Kaitlyn Anderson with 4 points scored, 2 steals and 2 rebounds. This promises to be a great season.

Seton Hall 25 - UCLA 23

It was a great first game. Since we only had one practice together the girls really played well. UCLA had powerful defense played by all the girls and many of the girls helped in the scoring department. Seton Hall took the lead several times throughout the game, but UCLA never gave up. UCLA came back fighting during all the segments. Julia Ashley, Shannon Curran and Kacey Corbett were great at getting the rebounds and scoring. Lauren Pratt, Lucy Ma, Maggie McCartin and Julia Perreira worked the ball to set up several great plays. Hannah Macallister executed a perfect layup and was fouled while taking the shot. She took the foul shot and it went in for a total of 3 points. In the 8th segment, the girls came back and tied the game up. The game went into overtime. UCLA came up just short of the victory after a Seton Hall basket in overtime.